This Week's Events

We do not have any events scheduled for this week, however there are some other events to be aware of. On Mar 4th, the Cimarron Region (Oklahoma) will be hosting their 3rd Annual Tech Event. Details are in the newsletter (arriving in your mail box early this week, or delivered to your email box this past Saturday).

For the racers in the bunch, the SCCA will be hosting a Test and Tune on Saturday the 4th at Walnut Ridge Airport and the first event on Sunday. Details are at www.arscca.org.

A couple of other notes of mention. I did not include credit for the photos in the March newsletter. My apologies to Kelly Shipp for this oversight. All Porschepalooza photos are credited to our web master, Kelly Shipp. Thanks Kelly for the great images!

There are some minor changes to the meeting information for Porsches and Ponies from the Newsletter. We will not meet at Christ the King Church as previously published. This is because it is on a Sunday and the parking lot will be full. Instead we will Meet at 11 a.m. at the Rave Theater located at I-430 and Col. Glenn and departing at 11:15. RSVP or for more info contact Rick Daes at (501) 565-5113 or rdaes@aristotle.net. This will be a rain or shine event.

Last Week's Events

This weekend we had two great events! First, our February club social and new logo part was at The Peabody in Little Rock. Everyone in attendance agreed this was a great time with Exclusive Porsche Parking in the circle drive at the Peabody, live music, great Hors D'oeuvres, door prizes and Porsche videos. A huge thank you goes out to our host and general manager of The Peabody, Gregg Hering, and our activities committee for an outstanding event! We had 18 Porsches parked out front, about 40 people at the party, and hundreds came by from around the River Market area to view all the Porsches.

We followed up Friday night with a morning Porsche Powerfest on Saturday. Dyno day, hosted again by Blair's British Cars in Little Rock was another fun event. We combined with the British Car Club to put down some power and camaraderie among the car crowd for a great time and learning experience about our cars and some neat British roadsters!

Other Upcoming Events

4 Mar— Cimarron Region (Oklahoma) 3rd Annual Tech Event. Watch for details in the newsletter. Too much to list here.

11 Mar— Breakfast club goes on the road to Mather Lodge on top of Petite Jean Mountain. Details are in the newsletter.
